

Science of Reading Workshop

Structured Literacy Interventions helpful to all; NEEDED for those who struggle with Dyslexia & Reading, Writing, & Spelling!

July 27-30, 2026 10 AM - 4:00 PM

PRACTICUM INCLUDED! Practice what you are learning!
Virtual Attendance Available!

This training is designed for teachers, therapists, tutors, and parents wanting to learn how to help all who struggle with reading, writing, spelling, & dyslexia. This methodology is appropriate for individual, small and whole group instruction. We also incorporate speech-to-print strategies, for those who need more than Orton-Gillingham.

Check with your professional organization regarding Professional Education Credits and CEUs!

What is Structured Literacy? What is the Science of Reading?

Dyslexia law?

Do you have questions? Then this is the class for you. We will be within the guidelines of the Nebraska State Department of Education's "Dyslexia Guide" to build an understanding of dyslexia, to dispel myths, to learn about current Nebraska reading laws and what this means for teachers and students. You will learn to informally assess and teach using Structured Literacy techniques.

The course demonstrates how to build phonological awareness, phonetic decoding and encoding skills, fluency, vocabulary and comprehension in reading.

Instructor: Shelli A. Cook, M.S. CCC-SLP received her Master's degree in Speech-Language Pathology from the University of Nebraska-Kearney, and her B.S. from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. She has over 25 years of experience as a clinician in various settings including public schools, private schools, and homeschools, as well as hospital and rehabilitation centers. Currently Shelli works in private practice with a focus on assessment and intervention for dyslexia, and has done presentations and trainings on Orton-Gillingham, as well as speech-to-print, interventions. She also enjoys overseas mission work experiences. She is a member of ASHA, NSHLA, and is a former Vice President of the Nebraska Dyslexia Association.
